Superior Roofing, Inc. Receives Carlisle's 2021 Excellence in Single-Ply Award

(CARLISLE, PENNSYLVANIA) – Carlisle SynTec Systems, a leading manufacturer and supplier of single-ply roofing systems, recently honored Superior Roofing, Inc. with its 2021 Excellence in Single-Ply (ESP) Award. Created in 1998 to recognize Carlisle's foremost contractor partners, ESP has become one of the best-known and most prestigious awards in the roofing industry.

Carlisle selects ESP Award winners based on a number of metrics, including workmanship quality and sales volume. Inclusion in ESP is an acknowledgment that a contractor is an industry leader who consistently delivers outstanding service and first-rate installations.

"Carlisle appreciates contractors who demonstrate their commitment to high-performance products and outstanding workmanship on each and every job. Superior Roofing, Inc. shares Carlisle's dedication to roofing excellence and consistently exemplifies this philosophy in the field," said Nick Shears, President of Carlisle Construction Materials.

Superior Roofing, Inc. is one of only 132 applicators in North America to receive Carlisle's 2021 ESP Award. The ESP Award is presented annually; 2021 marks the 24th anniversary of ESP.

Superior Roofing, Inc. has become one of the leading roofing companies in the U.S. They take great pride in the quality, service, and satisfaction they continuously provide to their customers.
